3.06/3.07 Philanthropic Event Examples

"In general, there are four types of [philanthropies] including (1) selling something, (2) providing a service, (3) conducting an event, and (4) seeking donations. Many of the most successful philanthropic events combine elements from each of these types." From FarmHouse Fraternity Philanthropy Fundraising Ideas. www.farmhouse.org/guides/cspc_phil_ideas.pdf

Philosophy for Philanthropy Events from "The V Foundation":

"While our mission states specifically that our goal is to raise money to fund researchers that conduct cancer research, a dollar total is not the only measure of "success" at The V Foundation. Success in any effort is judged by three objectives: fundraising, awareness and additional opportunities."
